Respected Sir,

In the matter of filling up the seats by nomination to Hoskote Municipal Council, I beg to put forth my claims as under for your kind consideration and selection

I have been a loyal citizen of the Hoskote Town being born and bred therein I am of Lingayat-Nagartha community and my age is 35 years.

I belong to one of the leading respectable families of Hoskote and there are now a number of houses and shops owned by me and other members of my family in Hoskote and around

My father the late Mr Javali Veerabhadrappa was Municipal Councillor of the Town Municipality for more than two decades He had the privilege of being elected the First Vice President of the Municipality and held the position till he died He contested the elections every year and used to get always the highest number of votes except during a few years when he got the next highest number Such is the confidence enjoyed by our family among the citizens of Hoskote Town

My father was also the first Chairman of the Bench of Magistrates when the same was constituted in Hoskote He rendered his loyal services in this capacity till his death. He was also a Member of Representative Assembly and District Board for several years

After my father, my eldest brother Mr Channappa continued to represent our family in the Municipal Council He also did staunch work for the Co-operative Society at Hoskote, and his services in this connection have been highly appreciated both in the Official and non-official circles He was also in the Assembly for some years After the demise of Mr Channappa my other brother has been rendering service in the council.

Now I have a great desire to serve my turn in the civic duties of a Municipal Councillors. Having been born and reared in Hoskote I have thorough knowledge of the town and its needs As to my accademical qualifications I have to state that I have undergone the full years course of V th form in the High School

I have devoted my time to Trading and Agriculture in and arround Hoskote The fruit garden belonging to my brother Mr J V Doddaveerappa, General Manager of the Mysore Insurance Co,Ltd,Bangalore situate in Hoskote and supervised by me on his behalf has been considered to be a model and many agriculturists in the area have been deriving great benefit of lessons from the way I am managing the Garden with the help of the Agricultural Department ~~and~~ of benign Government

There are no ~~candidates~~ Members of my community in the Municipal Council now In order to remove this lacuna and to enable me to have a chance of continuing the tradational services rendered by our family I pray that I may be selected to be filled up in one of the nominated seats I assure you of my best and loyal services if I am given a chance.

Thanking you in anticipation

I remain,
Your most obediently

Deputationists:-

Sriman Siddabasappa and other Members of Nagarthar Community, Hoskote, Bangalore District

Respected Sir,

We, the undersigned, Deputationists of Hoskote, beg to submit the following for your gracious consideration in the matter of nomination to the Municipal Council, Hoskote.

There are sufficiently large number of members of this Community ,who are the loyal subjects of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, serving the cause of the Public and the Government to the best of their abilities.

That this community is unrepresented in the Council and it is a pity 3 members of this Community could not come in majority owing to fierce competition in election campagin All the three members stood from the independent constituency to serve the Government,but owing to competition this ended in failure But however ,there is one Mr. B Veerabhadrappa, a Local person of this community, who is paying revenue and Municipal tax He is in every way a qualified hand to become a Municipal Councillor by nomination

We have entire confidence in him that he would co-operate with the Government in their deliberations and work wholeheartedly for the sake of the Community and the Public in General

He has been an experienced person in Municipal procedure and would deserve your kind patronage for nomination

We therefore most earnestly request your honour to kindly recommend his case for nomination and that we be given an opportunity to represent the Council from this Community.

For which act of kindness we shall ever remain gratef[illegible]

We beg to remain,
Respected Sir,
your most obedient deputationists

Bangalore,
